CAMPUS 63

KAHS

Foreword

In September 1962 Kiski Area Senior High School first opened its doors to some 1300 eager but bewildered students. These same doors, which were closed in June 1963 for the initial summer vacation, were shut behind the seniors forever. There are memories for students between the opening and closing of these doors, memories of failure and success, of disappointments and achievements, of sorrow and joy.

This Campus is offered as a reminder of friends and teachers, classes and activities—a pictorial record of the eventful and sometimes hectic first year at Kiski Area Senior High School.

Dedication

Mrs. Smith and Mr. Miller have been instrumental in the success of the guidance program at Kiski Area. As guidance counselors, they have shown their interest in the problems of each individual student and have attempted to solve these problems with understanding and patience. Concerned about the future of all students, they have helped set up schedules suitable for the needs of the individual student. They have informed seniors of available scholarships and job opportunities. The seniors of 1963 salute Mrs. Smith and Mr. Miller for their devotion to the student body of Kiski and wish them continued success in promoting high standards and ideals long after our graduation.

VAUGHN REMALEY

A PATH TO GLORY

A heavenly door opened briefly
And three classmates slipped from
Life's dark shadow.
It is hard for us to understand
Why such young lives must
Be called from life's treasures.
But God's own words tell us that
Each one of us must enter
His heavenly kingdom.
Memories of them linger
And our hearts recall
The good times shared
When their laughter filled
The air's sweet silence.
Let us not mourn
That they have left our presence
But rather rejoice that
They have reached
The ultimate goal of all Christians—
To find an eternal resting place
With our Lord in Heaven.

Class History

I'm from Avonmore, Vandegrift, Parks and Allegheny;
I'm from East Vandergrift, Bell Township, and Hyde Park;
I'm a senior at Kiski.

My classmates have different backgrounds and beginnings,
But we are joined together in a mutual bond of understanding.
We've experienced a senior year together and our memories will last forever.

Football games . . .
Crisp fall air sets the pace for excitement.
Crowds—jeering, cheering; players—scraping, fighting.
Colorful marching bands, the aroma of hot, steaming coffee,
Cold, shivering hands, popcorn,
Running, passing, kicking,
A touchdown!

"The State vs. Maxine Lowe . . ."
Rehearsals, stage makeup, young people turning into old people,
Nice boys into murderers, nice girls into vamps.
Acting, emoting.
The final scene moving, moving closer to the climax.
Tension mounts, uncertainty fills the air.
The verdict:
"We find the defendant Maxine Lowe not guilty."

The Prom . . .
Beautiful girls, beautiful dresses. Boys in white tuxes.
Dancing, laughing, eating, drowsing.
Dawn breaks.
The beauty, the stillness.

The last few weeks . . .
The Senior Banquet . . .
Baccalaureate . . .
and finally—
Graduation . . .
Uncertainty, but relief.
Sadness, happiness.
New worries, responsibilities.

Classes . . .
Thinking, studying;
Senior themes, what worries;
Late hours and sleepy eyes,
Discussions, arguments,
And the ultimate joy of understanding.

Concerts . . .
Practice, patience.
Songs—some loud and boisterous, some soft and moving.
Melodies, harmonies, symphonies.
Band members, choir members working together.
Band members, choir members working alone.
Excellence, satisfaction.

Basketball games . . .
Thrilling, breathtaking.
Cheerleaders—yelling, screaming, leading us on.
Five tired boys fast breaking.
The building of tension, the see-sawing score.
We won!

The Winner

Kiski Area Senior High School's Campus was named by Lynda Vaughn. Lynda, a sophomore, suggested the title because it characterized the design of the new school. The word "campus" also pertains to the activities of a school.

Besides going around naming yearbooks, Lynda was a J. V. Cheerleader and an active member of Dramatic Club.
